Short Answers - Write a brief answer to each question as you read the novel. All answers must be in complete sentences!

1. Passeportout's most valuable possession seems to be his watch. He refuses to change the time his watch shows based on what time zone they're in. What humorous comment does Passeportout make about his watch when they reach the 118th meridian, and explain why his watch APPEARS to be correct.

2. What is the strange alliance between the former enemies Mr. Fix and Passeportout in chapter 24?

3. What scene takes place in Chapter 25 at the political gathering, and how does it affect Phileas Fogg's journey later on?

4. What stereotype of Americans is portrayed, and what events "support" this stereotype?

Bonus: Explain the irony of the closing lines of Ch. 25.
