Short Answers - Write a brief answer to each question as you read the novel. All answers must be in complete sentences!

1. A couple of times in this last section, Jules Verne changes point of view in order to create suspense. One instance is in Chapter 30, and another is in Chapter 36. Choose one of these instances, and explain what shift in point of view has taken place and how it increases the suspense of the story.

2. Explain how Phileas Fogg came to be mistaken about what day he arrived in London.

3. Phileas Fogg is a hard man to understand. Characterization often includes a character's appearance, actions, thoughts, words, and the thoughts/responses of other characters to them. Make a cluster chart for Phileas Fogg that examines the complexity of his character.
