

Name _____

Date _____

COMMAS
Handout #1

Directions: Insert commas where needed.

Example: Yes, we will read two stories about snakes.

1. Ronnie and I are coming with you Teddy.
2. She likes math spelling and science.
3. No don't touch that yet.
4. His cousin lives in Tomball Texas.
5. Miss Flagg how are you?
6. Your idea in fact is a great one.
7. Their uncle moved to London England.
8. They were married on August 23 1990.
9. A cowboy a cowgirl and the herd boss talked about the cattle.
10. The tour group will fly to Detroit Michigan in the summer.
11. Holly turned twelve on Saturday February 1 1992.
12. Dear Earl

Marty Bill and I are planning a camping trip. Do you want to go?

Your friend
Will

13. On Friday July 8th 1994 their family will meet for a huge reunion.
14. Some children jumped hopped and skipped at the park.
15. Her address is 3339 Ridge Drive Sanford ME 04073.

Name _____

COMMAS
Handout #2

Date _____

Directions: Insert needed commas.

Example: Gloria, my aunt who lives in Denver, is coming to visit.

1. Jane arrived early but she didn't stay.
2. Your answer by the way is right.
3. Mrs. Lionel a graphic artist designed an advertisement.
4. Write your name with last name and then first name:

---

- 5 "Your hamster needs some water " said Mona.
6. Tiny soft marshmallows floated in the hot chocolate.
7. With this foil line the bottom of the pan.
8. "You're just the person " Lollie said "who can solve this problem."
9. Invert your best friend's name:

---

10. Have you seen Frisky my pet canary?
11. Gina took a huge plaid blanket to the football game.
12. Their trip to the zoo was fun and they are going again next week.
13. Harry our Dad's friend is teaching us how to shoot basketballs.
14. "Turn your project in tomorrow " said Mr. Britton.
15. You may sit here or you may take your lunch outside.

COMMAS PRACTICE

Name _____

Handout #3

Practice Four: Mixed Review

Read each sentence, then insert commas where they are needed. If no commas are needed, write CORRECT after the sentence.

'If no

1. My grandparents who are very active people have just completed a triathlon.
2. Our dog who recently had puppies is very protective of her babies.
3. This is the bike that I repaired and repainted.
4. The speed limit which is strictly enforced has reduced accidents.
5. Kate shouted "Keep your eye on the ball!"
6. Peter arrived but it was too late to go anywhere.
7. No the mail had not been delivered yet.
8. After we went on a hayride we had a cook out and played tennis.
9. If you look carefully at the fine print you will notice a clause that allows us to charge you.
10. There are three ways to get good grades: first pay attention; second take notes; and third study.
11. A strong northerly wind swept the snow against the garage door.
12. The committee discussed analyzed and accepted the proposal for a new company motto.
13. Red white and blue decorations filled the gym.
14. Yes I have finished my chores.
15. "I told you to eat all your broccoli" said my mother.
16. "The spacecraft" the announcer said "has just been launched into space."
17. I read The Hunger Games but I preferred the movie.
18. If you want to write me at summer camp the address is 15 Woods Hollow Way Brookville PA 08794.
19. I enjoy reading poetry but I also quite like horror stories.
20. The hiking expedition began on May 14 2021 in Hendersonville NC and returned there on June 8 2021.
21. The airplane will travel to Frankfurt Germany then head back to Paris France.
22. Dear Jillian
Would you please send me your new phone number? I would appreciate it.
Your friend
Macv